

PROJECT MANAGEMENT CHALLENGE 2006

Third Annual NASA Project Management Conference

BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Frederick Manzer, PMP
Director of Project Management
Strategy Bridge International, Inc.

Biography:

As the Director of Project Management at Strategy Bridge International, Inc. Mr. Manzer has responsibility for training and consulting for government and commercial clients. For the fifteen previous years he provided project management consulting and training for industry and government organizations. He began this career with seven years at the Defense Acquisition University. The remaining eight years he worked for private companies supporting government agencies, the defense industry, and commercial companies. He began his project management career after leaving the US Air Force with twelve years in the defense industry in project support and project management roles.